Unhappy Women!

No woman can be happy when her health is undermined. No woman can have good health while she suffers from female weakness, inflammation, ulceration or any disease of the delicate womanly organs. Nervous, sleepless, fretful, suffering in body and mind, she does not live but only exists.

More than a half a million such women have found a perfect and permanent cure for their diseased condition in the use of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Women cured by this remedy say it is a "wonderful medicine," so perfectly does it restore them to health and comeliness.

There is no alcohol in "Favorite Prescription," neither does it contain opium, cocaine, nor any other harmful drug. It is in the strictest sense, an honest, temperance medicine. Its ingredients are purely vegetable, and it will agree with the most delicate constitution.

Don't be hypnotized, or over persuaded, into accepting a substitute. This medicine has a record that's worth far more than any difference in price.

Sick and ailing women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, either personally or by letter, absolutely without charge or fee, thus avoiding the unpleasant questionings, offensive examinations and obnoxious local treatments considered necessary by many local practitioners. All correspondence treated as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Write without fear and without fee to Dr. R. V. Pierce, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets — These tiny, sugar-coated anti-billous granules regulate Stomach, Liver and Bowels, cure Constipation and Bad Stomach, attended by foul breath. One or two for laxative, three or four for cathartic.

This great family Doctor Book FREE on receipt of 21 one-cent postage stamps to cover cost of mailing; or, in fine cloth binding 31 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

NATURE SPARES

The Stricken Rose From Grief.

What a fortunate provision of nature it is, that deprives the rose of mental suffering; for how poignant would be its grief to discover, in the height of its blooming glory, that a canker fed at its heart, and that its beauty and fragrance were doomed forever. Nature always spares the sufferer; she is a veritable store-house of pleasing rewards, for those who seek her aid. In the years gone by falling hair and grayness have cast a gloom over the lives of thousands of young women, but thanks to the investigations of scientists the true cause of hair destruction is now known to be a germ or parasite that burrows into the hair follicles. Newbro's Herpicide absolutely destroys this germ, thus permitting the hair to grow as nature intended. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

STRONG Again

is what Mrs. Lucy Stovall, of Tilton, Ga., said after taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. Hundreds of other weak women are being restored to perfect health by this remedy. YOU may be well if you will take it.

Indigestion causes nearly all the sickness that women have. It deprives the system of nourishment and the delicate organs peculiar to women suffer — weaken, and become diseased.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all of the wholesome food that may be eaten. It nourishes the body, and rebuilds the weak organs, restoring health and strength. Kodol cures indigestion, constipation, dyspepsia, sour risings, belching, heartburn and all stomach disorders.

Sacerdotalism in the Church.

In discussing the topics "The Nature and Contents of the Holy Orders of This Church," in the National Church Congress in Brooklyn yesterday, Rev. Carl E. Grammer, of Norfolk, Va., a former Baltimorean, opposed the idea of sacerdotalism for the church. He said he disagreed with the proposition that the church had a sacerdotal ministry because this theory, "by making the essential element in the consecration of a minister an Episcopal ordination, and by making the supreme function of the minister certain sacerdotal acts, removes these doctrines from the class of nonessentials of the faith; second, our church has declared that nothing is to be required of any man as an article of faith that may not be proved by Holy Writ."

"Protestant Christendom," he said, "has existed for four centuries now and is steadily progressing in the things that make life beautiful and noble, just and good. It has its peril, its evils, its special sins and weaknesses, but it it hardly admits of controversy that it has the fruits of the Spirit as abundantly as the Roman Catholic people or the adherents of the Greek church. Yet, according to the sacerdotal theory, these last are partakers in a supreme sense of the benefits of the Incarnation, while the vast majority of our countrymen and the people of Presbyterian Scotland are without that message.

"Such reasoning has a dreadful tendency to make people think lightly of the importance of covenanted security. William McKinley, who charged the guards as he fell not to hurt his assassin, and who died in Christian resignation and faith, saying, 'It is God's way; His will be done,' being a Methodist, is outside the conditions of the covenant, and Mr. Pobiedonoffise, the chief supporter of Russian religious tyranny and prosecution, being a member of the Holy Orthodox Church of Russia, is a partaker in a supreme sense of the blessings of the Incarnation.

"The large majority of the people of the United States are without this gift, and yet were capable of giving up Cuba, have one of the most enlightened and moral civilizations in the world and the people of Spain and Russia have this benefit, although the former ground down Cuba and the Philippines for centuries, and have been steadily degenerating in vigor of mind and character, and the latter have manifested to the world the cruelty of its rulers and the ignorance and puerile idolatry of its subjected masses."

Typesetting by Telegraph.

Among the most interesting consular reports received by the Bureau of Commerce and Labor lately was one from United States Consul Liefeld, of Freiburg, Germany, in which he sends the following interesting article on setting type by telegraph:

"An interesting discussion took place at a meeting of the Institution of Electrical Engineers when Mr. Donald Murray read a paper on the Murray automatic highspeed page-printing telegraph system. The apparatus, which employs the shortest telegraphic alphabet, and therefore the quickest, was seen in operation during the evening, and was again exhibited at the conversazione of the Royal Institution last night. The Murray system of printing by telegrapny is a great advance on other methods, and it has been used by the British postoffice with great advantage. The German postoffice has been giving it a prolonged trial, and the Russian postoffice has just given an order for the apparatus. By means of the Murray apparatus telegrams are printed at the receiving station, and, where necessary, the apparatus can be attached to a linotype machine and set up type without human aid. At the same time one great advantage of this typesetting system is that the compositor can make corrections as the type is being set up. The Murray telegraph printer was originally designed, not for telegraphy, but for automatic typesetting in the ordinary sense of the word, the idea, inspired by newspaper experience, having been to operate a linotype automatically by means of a perforated tape produced by a typewriter keyboard. Several machines of this kind are in successful operation, but of these inventions the Murray is the only one that has been designed on lines permitting of successful telegraphic development. In fact, in the case of the Murray apparatus, the telegraphic development has been so successful that it has quite overshadowed the original typesetting idea."

Card Game at Royal Wedding.

Several ancient wedding customs practiced by the Prussian royal family two centuries ago and earlier will be revived at the festivities in honor of the marriage of Crown Prince Frederick William and the Duchess Cecilia of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, June 6. One of these is the so-called court at cards, in which the bride and bridegroom while playing cards with the King and Queen receive the congratulations of the court.

The Emperor, Empress, Crown Prince and Crown Princess will sit at a regular card table in the white hall of the palace with card tables for other members of the royal family right and left of the Emperor's table. Behind each distinguished personage will stand his or her suite and the invited guests will mass in front of the card tables, bow deeply and then take up positions right and left, making room for similar groups.

Another ancient ceremony will be a dance by torchlight dating from the early Teutonic times.

After the bride and bridegroom have left the wedding party the chief lady in waiting will give each of the guests a garter of silk or velvet with the bride's monogram and the date in gold letters.

Whether the Grand Duchess Anastasia mother of the bride, will attend the wedding seems to be still undecided.

"I Thank The Lord!"

cried Hannah Plant, of Little Rock, Ark., "for the relief I got from Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It cured my fearful running sores, which nothing else would heal, and from which I had suffered for 5 years." It is a marvelous healer for cuts, burns and wounds. Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store, 25c.

Strictly Genuine.

Most of the patent medicine testimonials are probably genuine. The following recently appeared in the Aitcheson (Kan.) Globe: "Joe Tack, a well-known engineer, running on the Missouri Pacific between Wichita and Kiowa, lately appeared in a big one, with a picture, and when he was in this office today, we asked him about it. He says he had terrific pains in his stomach, and thought he had cancer. His druggist recommended Kodol and he says it cured him. He recommended it to others who were also cured." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and cures all stomach troubles. Sold by W. F. Creighton, 401 King street, and corner Queen and Patrick streets.

Mothers Are Helped

THEIR HEALTH RESTORED

Happiness of Thousands of Homes Due to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Mrs. Pinkham's Advice.

A devoted mother seems to listen to every call of duty excepting the supreme one that tells her to guard her health, and before she realizes it some derangement of the female organs has manifested itself, and nervousness and irritability take the place of happiness and amiability.

Mrs. Ph. Hoffman

Tired, nervous and irritable, the mother is unfit to care for her children, and her condition ruins the child's disposition and reacts upon herself.

The mother should not be blamed, as she no doubt is suffering with backache, headache, bearing-down pains or displacement, making life a burden.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the unfailing cure for this condition. It strengthens the female organs and permanently cures all displacements and irregularities.

Such testimony as the following should convince women of its value:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:

"I want to tell you how much good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me. I suffered for eight years with ovarian troubles. I was nervous, tired and irritable, and it did not seem as though I could stand it any longer, as I had five children to care for. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended and it has entirely cured me. I cannot thank you enough for your letter of advice and for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me.—Mrs. Ph. Hoffman, 100 Himrod Street, Brooklyn, N. Y."

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

FRIDAY EVENING, MAY 12, 1905.

THE TERRIBLE disaster near Harrisburg, Pa., at an early hour yesterday morning has opened the eyes of many people, including some representative men, to the importance of properly guarding explosives in transitu. A few days ago a box car loaded with such was noticed on a side track at one of the Alexandria depots. A card was tacked upon its side bearing the following words: "Explosives. Handle with care." The car had been placed almost to the sidewalk. In shifting freight cars this dangerous receptacle could have been unnecessarily rammed and the contents exploded, when a disaster similar to that on the Pennsylvania Railroad would have horrified Alexandria. Local ordinances provide for the storing of powder beyond the city limits, and cars containing dangerous freight should be kept at a safe distance from houses. River steamers often transport explosives and terrible disasters are possible where proper care is not taken. During the civil war, it will be remembered, a terrible explosion occurred at City Point, several barges containing ammunition having exploded at the wharves. The cause of the disaster was never definitely ascertained. Legislation looking to the minimizing of such dangers should be inaugurated at once.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S return to Washington, after his emphatic utterances upon the railroad rate question, has stirred the members of the Railroad Congress to a full sense of the conflict in which they are engaged with the administration and the strong public sentiment which supports the President. Railroad men declare that, so far as the coming session of Congress is concerned, they have the President beaten and that they are encouraged in this opinion by the attitude of the Senate committee on interstate commerce and the promise of other railroad Senators to hold both the President and the House in check when the time comes to pass a rate bill. But railroad men are not blind to the fact that even the Senate may have to give way before the overwhelming public demand for legislative action. Secretary Taft's open advocacy of rate legislation has given new significance to the fact that he is to preside this month at the Ohio State republican convention, and that his friends expect his boom for the presidency in 1908 to be launched then.

AS WILL be seen by today's telegraphic news, Nan Patterson, after having been tried three times on the charge of murdering "Caesar" Young in a carriage in New York city, has been released upon her own recognizance. This is believed to be a virtual acquittal, and that the woman will not again be brought to trial. The case against the suspected murderess has attracted national interest. Some have from the first believed that the woman is innocent of the charge urged against her. Others, however, are convinced, from the circumstantial evidence, that she killed Young. The affair from beginning to end is one of many which calls attention to the fact that both men and women who persist in following downward paths, sooner or later reap what they sow. Young had a wife; Nan Patterson a husband. Both persisted in defying the laws of God and man. Young has passed from the scene and the woman if not like Lady Macbeth, has attained a notoriety by no means enviable.

THAT PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT possesses a practical vein was never more plainly shown than in his interview with the Chicago labor committee Wednesday. The delegation had obtained an audience with the President for the purpose of protesting against the introduction of federal troops into Chicago to restore the peace. Mr. Roosevelt took the matter by the handle and without any unnecessary verbiage said all men should obey the law, and that Mayor Dunne's attempts to preserve the peace had his hearty support. "I'm a union man, but unions must respect the law," were Mr. Roosevelt's significant words. The committee, it is said, left the President in no way satisfied with the interview, realizing, however, the full force of what he said.

THE EXTENT of the adulteration of liquors sold in Pennsylvania is shown in the May bulletin, which has just been issued by Dairy and Food Commissioner Dr. B. H. Warren. The report shows that, under Commissioner Warren's direction, fines have been paid by defendants before magistrates or in the courts in the different counties in 793 cases for the sale chiefly of adulterated blackberry brandy, blackberry wine and blackberry cordial. The average fine and costs in each case was about $57.50, which has been deposited in the State Treasury. Six hundred samples of the blackberry brandy and wines examined by Chemist Cochran, when Commissioner Warren first began his investigations of alcoholic beverages, showed over 90 per cent. to be adulterated.

SPEAKING OF psychological moments, the naval authorities determined to paint the torpedo craft a slate color just as the Treasury officials got to figuring on that deficit.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., May 12.

President Roosevelt's trip through the west and southwest ended at midnight. All told he covered 6,600 miles journeying through 12 States and 3 territories. Summarizing the results of the tour in the President's own words: "I left Washington a middling good American; I come back a far better one. The average American is a pretty good fellow and all we need in this country is to get together and get acquainted." This was a favorite expression of the President, and he found it cheered to the echo from Texas to the wilds wherein he made his camp for the bear hunt. So Mr. Roosevelt is certain that the American people approve of his policies, the building of the Panama canal, "with efficiency and economy, but anyway with efficiency;" the government control of interstate commerce and the equalizing of railway rates; and his belief that the Monroe doctrine can best be enforced by the maintenance of a large navy, to be used not as a menace to other powers but as a promoter of respect and therefore world peace.

Oscar Malmros, for several years Consul at Colon but who has just been transferred to Ruen, France, was among the callers at the State Department this morning. Mr. Malmros arrived from the isthmus in New York yesterday on board of the Seguranca, which also brought a number of disgruntled employees from the canal zone, many of whom were afraid of the yellow fever and more who were dissatisfied with the living conditions on the isthmus. Mr. Malmros said that there was no reason for any scare over the yellow fever situation. While there are several cases in hospital and there have been some deaths he said that conditions are improving all of the time. Consul Malmros was much astonished to learn that Minister John Barrett at Panama had reported himself ill. He said that Mr. Barrett had seen him off from the isthmus and appeared to be in the most robust health at that time.

The first caller at the White House after the return of the President was Senator Kean, of New Jersey, who came to present the President with an invitation to attend the 125th anniversary of the battle of Elizabethtown, N. J. The President was unable to accept.

Vice President Fairbanks was one of the early callers at the White House. He will leave for the west tomorrow. He would have gone before but waited until the President came back.

Excepting those absent from the city, Secretaries Hay and Wilson, every member of the Cabinet attended the meeting at the White House this morning, the first for six weeks. After receiving the congratulations of his advisors on the success of his trip, the President entered at once with them into a discussion of the various matters of public business that accumulated during his absence. The Bowen-Loomis controversy was also discussed by the Cabinet members, it being decided to reserve action in the matter until the President shall have had opportunity to hear an explanation from Mr. Bowen, who is expected here from New York on Monday. Secretary Morton brought up the matter of proper ceremony in memory of John Paul Jones whose body is to be conveyed to this country from France by an American squadron. He is in favor of having the in interment at Annapolis, and it is thought that his desire will prevail. Among other things considered was an opinion rendered by Attorney General Moody to the effect that the eight hour does not apply to work on the Panama canal. This ruling is especially gratifying to the President and the Secretary of War, as the construction of the canal would have been seriously hampered had the commission been required to limit a day's labor to eight hours on the isthmus in accordance with the requirement on government work in the United States.

William Ramsay, jr., president of the Wabash system, before the Senate committee on inter-state commerce, this morning differentiated between tax legislation which he said was general legislation, and rate making acts which he said constituted class legislation. This point he said had been overlooked by President Roosevelt in his recent utterances at Denver. Government ownership, he said, would entail an annual deficiciency appropriation which would make the army and navy and rivers and harbors appropriations look like a drop in the bucket. Railroad men, Mr. Ramsey declared in answer to a question about their political activity, have just as much right to engage in politics and appear before legislature as any Senator or public official. "We have not been decitizenized," he said, "although the public clamor would make it appear many of us should be in the penitentiary." The witness cited the Harrisburg wreck in corroboration of his testimony yesterday relative to abuses under the safety appliance law. The wreck was due to a failure of the safety apparatus, and this showed that while safety legislation may me passed accidents can't be prevented.

Governor Cummins, of Iowa, shook hands with the President soon after the latter reached his office this morning. "We did not talk tariff or business," said Gov. Cummins. "I am going to start west this evening; will talk at Chicago tomorrow night, and then expect to go home. The tariff? Oh, my views are pretty well known. I have no doubt that Congress will do the proper thing when the time comes. I am not worrying about the deficit and do not think that any one else is doing so. The American people are so well off that a little deficit in one year's business is not an important matter. I do not think that the deficit will cut any figure in tariff discussion. It is the very least of all the reasons why the tariff should be revised. If a revision makes more money all right. If it does not, still all right."

The Harrisburg horror will probably result in Congress throwing more safeguards about the transportation of high explosives. A bill providing for the labeling of cars loaded with dynamite, giant power and other dangerous explosives was introduced in the Senate last year by Senator Elkins, but failed to pass because of the effect such a law would have upon the transportation of cartridges and ammunition.

The news of Nan Patterson's release was first communicated to her family by a representative of the Publishers Press. Mrs. Patterson is still confined to her room on account of nervous ailment. Mrs. Patterson immediately became highly nervous and broke down completely. When Nan's brother, C. H. Patterson, at his place of business was informed that his sister was free he said: "This is what we have been living and praying for for over a year. It seems too good to be true. Now all the agony that my mother and father and sisters have suffered is at an end." Preparations were immediately commenced to receive Nan and her father at the family home, 1462 Howard street.

Justice Wright this evening sustained the demurrers in the 2d, 3d, and 4th counts and overruled them in the 1st, 5th and 6th counts in the W. G. Crawford postoffice cases.

The John D. Rockefeller Institute of Medical Research, founded by the Standard Oil millionaire after the death of his little grandson, is rapidly nearing completion, in New York.

A cannon was used yesterday and holes were shot into the burning oil tanks at Downs, W. Va. The burning liquid was then fenced in by earthen trenches and further damage prevented.

As a result of the conference of democratic leaders at Senator Gorman's home in Washington on Wednesday, it was announced that the negro will be the dominant issue in the coming State campaign.

The President reached Washington shortly after midnight, three hours errlier than was expected, the Pennsylvania Railroad officials having put forth an extra effort to shorten the trip from Chicago.

Twenty persons are known to be dead and more than a hundred others were injured in the railroad wreck and dynamite explosion on the Pennsylvania Railroad near Harrisburg, Pa., yesterday morning.

A tornado struck the town of Overbrook, 12 miles southeast of Topeka, Kan., yesterday, and passing through a thickly settled farming community wrecked several houses and barns and unroofed others. So far as known no one was killed.

In the midst of the performance of Wallace's circus at Marrietta, Ohio, yesterday afternoon, lightning struck the main pole of the side show tent, killing William Tullins, of Lowell; seriously injuring four others, and stunning more than a hundred spectators.

The fact that about one-half of the export trade of the United States with Germany, exclusive of raw cotton, will be directly affected by the new German tariff law and reciprocity treaty is causing much concern among officials in the Treasury Department and the Department of Commerce and Labor.

Premier Balfour stated in the House of Commons yesterday that because of the changes in the sea power of other nations a redistribution of the British fleet and army was desirable for colonial defense. Progress of Russia toward the Afghan frontier compelled the British government to take a serious view of the situation.

Mrs. Alexander Schafer and her six-year-old son were struck and fatally injured by lightning at Lancaster, Ohio, yesterday. Mrs. Elizabeth Schafer, who was also in the house, was uninjured. The house was wrecked. Four distinct electrial storms broke over the city, doing great damage to trees, isolated barns, and telegraph poles.

Veterans of the Union and Confederate forces gathered in Washington yesterday for a two days' social and non-political rally. The meeting is intended to be preliminary to a permanent fraternal organization, national in character, of the Blue and the Gray, and with the idea of holding in Washington in 1906, a grand reunion and review.]

The death list of Wednesday night's tornado at Snyder, Oklahoma, will probably exceed 100 persons. Eighty-five bodies have been recovered, a dozen persons are missing and given up for dead, and of the 41 seriously wounded several are likely to die. More than 100 other persons suffered less severe injuries. In several instances whole families perished in the ruins of their homes.

Reports of a remarkable tidal wave along the west shore of Lake Michigan were received in Chicago yesterday. The wave seemed to be the highest at Kenosha and Racine, Wis., where a wall of water swept in causing much damage and alarm along the docks. At Chicago the wave simply raised the stage of water and caused a very heavy current down the drainage canal. Boats navigated the river with the greatest difficulty as a result of the high current.

England and India.

In the House of Commons yesterday, Premier Balfour, in a remarkable speech with reference to the work of the committee on national defense, discussed the precautions that had been taken for the defense of the coasts and Indian frontier and the possibilities on case of invasion, with an openness seldom surpassed.

An invasion of Indian, he said, had long been the dream of military leaders. The progress of Russia toward the Afghan frontier and the construction of strategic railways had compelled the government to consider in all seriousness what could be done by its great military neighbors in the East. No surprise or rush, however, was possible. In an invasion of India any collision of great magnitude between two powers must depend upon rapidity of railway construction. Here Russia would be faced with almost insuperable difficulties. If Great Britain permitted the slow absorption of Afghanistan and allowed Russia's strategic railways to creep closer and closer to the frontier, Great Britain would not only inevitably have to pay for its supineness by having to keep afoot an army far larger than could be contemplated with equanimity but would sooner or later be faced with some of the greatest military problems which had ever confronted the British government. Foresight and courage were the great needs.

A deal has been consumated by which the Radford Pipe Works, at Radford, passes into the possession of the Lynchburg Foundry Company, of which Henry E. McWane is president.

The final exercises of the University College of Medicine will occur at Richmond May 18. The address will be delivered by Dr. C. Alphonso Smith, of the University of North Carolina.

Beatrice Langhorne, who was sentenced at Norfolk to one year in the penitentiary for stealing $200 from a sailor, claims that she is the daughter of R. J. Reynolds, the millionaire tobacconist of North Carolina.

Among those who received the degree of Doctor of Medicine at the University College of Medicine, in Richmond, yesterday, were Fielding L. Ashton, of King George; C. Fenton Ross, of Loudoun; Wm. L. Weadon, of Loudoun; and Wm. F. Williamson, of Alexandria.

Accompanied by M. Jusserand, the French Ambassador, the members of the General Society of the Cincinnati yesterday went from Richmond to Yorktown and spent the entire day inspecting that historic place, where a century and a half ago Cornwallis surrendered to the combined armies and fleets of the Americans and the French.

Rev. Paul Whitehead, D. D., presiding elder of Norfolk district; Dr. R. E. Blackwell, president of Randolph-Macon College, and Carter Glass, of Lynchburg, have been appointed from Virginia by the College of Bishops of the Southern Methodist Church to represent the church in the Interchurch Conference on Federation, which meets in New York city, November 15-20.

Frank Turner, an important witness against Shepherd K. Smith, who is awaiting trial in Manchester on the charge of beating his five-year-old boy to death, died last night. Turner stated that some days before the boy's death he looked out of his back window and saw Smith strike the lad with an axe handle and that soon thereafter the boy was taken ill.

Policeman Kills Soldier.

Officer Phillips, of the Phoebus, Va., police force, last night shot and killed Private George Dowri, of the Coast Artillery, of Fort Monroe, during a fight at Phoebus between the officer and seven artillerymen.

According to Officer Phillips' story of the affair, he saw Dowri and two other soldiers violating a town ordinance and called upon them to stop, which they did. The officer passed on, but the three men followed and overtook him, giving fight. The policemen returned the blows with his club, knocking two of the men down.

Four other artillerymen from Fort Monroe rushed to their comrades' assistance. Then there was a general mixup, during which the officer lost his club, which was grabbed by one of the soldiers, who began striking Officer Phillips on the head, inflicting several ugly wounds.

At that juncture W. H. Power, the city attorney, and a Mr. Grant rushed to the officer's rescue. The presence of the two men put the soldiers to flight, and Officer Phillips started in pursuit. Two of the men were arrested by other officers who joined in the chase, but Dowri ran down an alley. He came out on another street and met Officer Phillips. The officer says he told Dowri to halt, but the soldier made toward him as if to start another assault, so the officer fired the shot which entered Dowri's chest, passing through both lungs. The man died before he could be taken to the Fort Hospital.

The commanding officers of Fort Monroe have demanded an investigation of the shooting. A company of soldiers has been sent out from the fort to prevent a riot among the soldiers who are in Phoebus on passes and among whom excitement runs high.

Army of the Potomac.

The thirty-sixth reunion of the Society of the Army of the Potomac came to a close at Manassas yesterday.

The society, almost the entire town of Manassas and a large part of Prince William county spent today in visiting the battlefields. Veterans of the Army of the Potomac and of the Army of Northern Virginia walked shoulder to shoulder and arm in arm over the plains around the Henry farm and the old stone house. The scenes were very impressive and will long be remembered by all who accompanied the society over the battleground. The stone bridge, Groveton and the old railroad cut were all visited during the day.

At noon an elegant luncheon, prepared by the ladies of Manassas, was spread under the trees surrounding the Henry house. After dinner a few short and appropriate speeches were made by members of the society. Senator Daniel spoke at some lenghth. The veterans of the Army of the Potomac admit that they spent a much more pleasant day upon the battlefields than they did in '60 and '62. The society was entertained in the evening at the home of Mr. Robert Portner. The next reunion of the society will be held in the city of Washington.

Recent Jewish Massacre.

The St. Petersburg Novosti (the Jewish organ) claims to have information showing that the massacre of Jews at Zhitomir was regularly organized, while the Syn Otetchestva says Jewesses were assaulted during the attacks made upon the Israelites at Gostynin. The government papers are not permitted to print details of the recent attacks on Jews.

The London Jewish Chronicle announces: "We are informed on high authority that important developments may be anticipated in the situation of Jews in Russia. We are informed that a measure is more than under consideration which will give unhoped for relief to Jews. Absolute freedom of movement and residence will be granted in all cities and towns, but not in villages, as the authorities are not willing to run the risk of a repetition of the Kishinef affair. We understand that the murder of Jews causes the government more anxiety than of persons of other nationalities because of the reprobation it arouses in Europe."

Today's Telegraphic News

The Kaiser's Speech.

Berlin, May 12.—The publication of the speech of Kaiser Wilhelm to the officers and troops, following the review at Strasburg, in which he declared that Russia's downfall in Manchuria was due to the fact that her army had been disorganized by vice and drunkenness, and stating that it might become necessary for Germany to check the "yellow peril," since Russia had failed to do so, has aroused considerable discussion.

The Morgen Post declares that it was indiscreet on the part of the emperor to deliver a speech which was not intended for publication in the presence of an audience numbering thousands.

It is possible that grave political and diplomatic consequence may follow the publication of the speech. The Kaiser's words are sure to be discussed diplomatically, and this will probably mean that the Russian government will be forced to formally inquire whether the speaker actually referred to the Russian army in the terms alleged.

This will necessitate an explanation on the part of the Chancellor von Buelow, in regard to the reported utterance, who will probably say that the Emperor was misunderstood, or had been misrepresented.

Numerous newspapers have printed articles urging speakers to refrain from making indiscreet or impulsive utterances which will cause international excitement and possibly lead to grave diplomatic complications.

St. Petersburg, May 12.—A report of the Kaiser's speech, in which he referred to the Russian army as being disorganized by vice and drunkenness, was telegraphed here yesterday, but the censor prohibited its publication. The newspapers were forbidden to mention the matter, and the knowledge of the utterances is confined to the Czar, high officials, and the newspapers.

The keenest resentment is manifested by the court and army officials to whom the matter is known.

Another Outbreak.

Jitomir, Russia, May 12—Another outbreak occurred today. One official and forty citizens are reported killed. The Governor has warned the mob that if the disorders occur again the troops will fire at the slightest provocation. If the threat is carried out more bloodshed is probable as the conditions are such that a disturbance is likely to occur at any time.

London, May 12.—A dispatch to the Exchauge Telegraph Company from St. Petersburg, says that more massacres took place yesterday in the province of Volhynia of which Jitomir, where the anti-semitic outbreaks occured earlier in the week, is the capital. The casualties are reported at eleven killed and many injured.

St. Petersburg, May 1.—The Official Messenger states that the cause of the outbreak at Kitomir, where the Jews were attacked by orthodox Christians was due to the fact that 300 Jews met in a forest outside the city and engaged in revolver practice, using a portrait of the Czar as a target. This greatly enraged a number of peasants who learned of the occurrence. The Jews insulted the police and the government thus provoking the disturbances which followed. The Minister of the Interior has instructed the authorities to make an appeal to the more intelligent and reasonable Jews to use their influence with their co-religionists to avoid giving any offense to Christians in the interests of personal safety.

Fleeing from the Isthmus.

New York, May 12.—The steamer Allianca is due here in a few days from Panama, crowded with refugees from the Isthmus, from whence they have fled in panic, becanused of fear of yellow fever. The refugees are mostly employes of the Isthmian commission. On board the Allianca is General Davis, who was so seriously ill when he left Panama that he is hardly expected to survive the voyage. The dead body of Auditor West, who died of yellow fever, is also on board. The flight from the Isthmus has partaken of the nature of a panic. Discontented with the management of affairs, by the United States government, and the mismanagement of the old canal commission, scores of employes are throwing up their positions with the commission, and without even waiting to be paid, are leaving the country. Over half a hundred government employes arrived here yesterday on the Panama steamer Seguranca, as the advance guard of refugees. They told stories of gross mismanagement and complained bitterly that conditions under which they were to work on the Isthmus, had been misrepresented to them. Instead of sanitary quarters, they were either forced to live in squalor and filth or sleep in tents on the grass.

Twenty-one Dead.

Harrisburg, Pa., May 12.—The death list in yesterday's wreck of the Cleveland and Cincinnati express on the Pennsylvania Railroad, totals twenty-one this morning, all of whom but nine have been identified. Of the 140 injured, over fifty of the less seriously injured have left the hospital for their homes. It cannot be stated positively that all the passengers are accounted for, as it is believed that some of the passengers were wholly consumed in the flames that destroyed the train.

Sam Shubert, the manager of Princess, Lyric and Casino theatres in New York, died at 9:50 o'clock this morning, from the burns he received in the wreck yesterday.

Bequest from Andrew Carnegie.

Boston, May 12.—Radcliffe college, the female department of Harvard, is the latest institution to be made a beneficiary from the millions of Andrew Carnegie. Mr. Carnegie has offered to Radcliffe $75,000 for a new library building, on condition that the college raise an equal amount to be used as a special andowment fund. The college has accepted the offer, and will at once send out an appeal to its alumni and other interested in its welfare, to help raise the necessary amount.

A wreck is reported on the Cotton Belt Railroad, east of Dallas, Texas today caused a washout. Three passengers and two trainmen are reported killed.

Son Lost Mother.
"Consumption runs in our family, and through it I lost my mother," writes E. B. Reid, of Harmony, Me. "For the past five years, however, on the slightest sign of a Cough or Cold, I have taken Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which has saved me from serious lung trouble." His mother's death was a sad loss for Mr. Reid, but he learned that lung trouble must not be neglected and how to cure it. Quickest relief and cure for coughs and colds. Death of Major Myers.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Va., May 12.—Major E. T. D. Myers, President of the R., F. & P. R. R., died at 4 o'clock this morning of heart disease. He was 76 years old and a brave Confederate soldier.

Last week Major Myers went with a delegation to Washington to escort the body of General Fitzhugh Lee to this city, and the excitement and exertion of that occasion, contributed to the causes which caused his death. He was a life long friend of General Lee.

Eight Men Killed.

Philadelphia, May 12.—Without warning one of the huge tanks, No. 1, of the United Gas Improvement Company's plant, at Point Breeze, exploded shortly after 11 o'clock this morning. Eight men were instantly killed and eleven others were injured, at least two of them being so badly burned and mangled that they cannot live. The big tank was completely wrecked and the effect of the terrific explosion was felt throughout the entire southern section of the city, windows being shattered and houses and factories severely shaken. Of the score or more of men who were working in the immediate vicinity of the big tank not one escaped injury. One instant they were going quietly about their tasks and in another there came a small flash of fire, then, with a mighty roar, the immense steel tank, weighing hundreds of tons and containing thousands upon thousands of cubic feet of gas, was rent asunder as if it were but paper and the fragments sent hurling high in the air or driven with the force of cannon balls to either side. Following this shower of rended steel fragments came a sheet of flame, which enveloped everything within a radius of a hundred yards and caught those workmen who had escaped the first force of the explosion and the rain of missiles. Many were first overcome by the escaped gas and then burned as they lay unconscious. Several others of the injured men are thought to be fatally hurt. Sixteen bodies are believed to be buried under wrecked retort house.

Mrs. T. G. Gallagher, who lived near the gas works, extinguished the flames which were consuming three men who were blown into her back yard. The holder contained 5,000,000 cubic feet of gas. It was completely destroyed, together with five other buildings. One of these was the handsome U. G. I. clubhouse. It is believed that many met death here and the ruins are being searched. A man was blown fully 500 yards from the holder and killed.

Movements of the Fleets.

Tokio, May 12.—The sailing vessel Veitokumaru reported that she sighted two Russian war vessels, evidently a part of the Vladivostok squadron, twenty miles northwest of Fukaura on May 9. The vessels were steaming toward the south. The Russian vessels reported by the Veitokamaru are probably the same vessels which were reported off Aomori, near the Tsugaru strait, on Tuesday and which are supposed to be the Rossia and Gromboi. Fukaura is on the west coast of Hondo, the largest island of the Japanese group, and could easily have been reached by the Russian vessels, which were in Tsugaru strait in a few hours. The course of the vessels which were reported to be sailing southward indicate that they planned a trip down the western coast of the Japanese islands probably on the look out for Japanese trading vessels.

London, May 12.—The correspondent of the Evening Star, at Hong Kong, wires that several volunteer cruisers of the Baltic fleet were sighted on May 7, by the British torpedo storeship Hecla, near Van Wong Bay, Indo China. The cruisers signalled to the Hecla: "Kindly inform us whether you have seen any men of war." The Hecla replied that she had not seen any warships and had no news of any such vessels. The commander of the Hecla states that the cruisers were clean and appeared to be in excellent condition.

Audience with the Pope.

Rome, May 12.—Dr. Charles A. Briggs, the well known American bible student and critic, had a special private audience with Pope Pius X. today. The Pontiff conversed with Dr. Briggs for more than a half hour on religious subjects, especially on the position of the differences which prevent a reunion of dissident churches with the church of Rome. Dr. Briggs expressed his views very frankly from the standpoint of higher criticism. He spoke specially of the repressive action of the Index Librorum Prohibitorum, and the inquisition or censorship of doctrinal books, which forbid Catholics from reading certain books except in their expurgated form, and of the anti scientific attitude of Catholic students against taking the modern initiative in their studies. The Pope astonished Dr. Briggs by his intelligent grasp of the problems he presented and the liberal tendency of his theology as manifested in his answers.

The Oklahoma Horror.

Snyder, O. T., May 12.—Order is being wrought out of chaos in this town by gangs of Frisco trackmen sent here on special trains. The work is systematically done. The streets gradually are being cleared of wreckage, which is piled in heaps. All the dead have been placed in new caskets, and arrangements are under way for funerals. The injured, excepting those able to care for themselves, have been removed to Lawton and Oklahoma City. The citizens are beginning to take heart, and the determination is general to rebuild. The relief committee met this morning to make plans for handling supplies and cash contributions. Great crowds of sightseers and persons having relatives here have come in and are suffering considerable discomfort. The territorial engineer corps arrived today with a large number of tents.

Memorial Day Services.

Portsmouth, Va., May 12.—Several hundred blue jackets and marines from the naval training station, and warships at the Norfolk navy yard, composing the John W. Phillips garrison of the army and navy, competed with Confederate veterans of this city in the celebration of Memorial Day, today, in decorating the graves of the Confederate dead. The presence of United States forces was favorably commented upon. Rear Admiral Purnell F. Harrington, commander of the Norfolk navy yard, participated in the exercises.

Several Persons Killed by Storm.

Louisville, Ky., May 12.—A report received here says a terrific storm occurred in Owen county, and that several persons were killed.

Nan Patterson Released.

New York, May 12.—Nan Patterson, the Floradora girl, who was three times on trial for the murder of Caesar Young, the bookmaker, in this city on June 4, last, was released from the Tombs this morning, and allowed to go free on her own recognizance, on motion of District Attorney Jerome, before Recorder Goff. This means that she will probably never be brought to trial again.

Nan was taken before the recorder shortly after 11 o'clock this morning, when Mr. Jerome made the motion on which she was set free. She was accompanied by her counsel, Abe Levy and Daniel O'Reilly, by whom she was defended during her two trials, and her father, John B. Patterson, who has stood by his daughter ever since her first trial began. As soon as she heard the words which set her free, Nan started at once for Mr. Levy's office. Tomorrow she will start for Washington to see her mother.

A great crowd had gathered at the entrance of the court building, and the police were forced to make a pathway for the defendant. When Miss Patterson appeared there was a wild hurrah and shouts. Three cheers were given as the carriage rattled away.

Miss Patterson will spend today packing up her effects at the St. Paul Hotel and, if her plans are not changed, she will leave for Washington tomorrow. In the cell which the Floradora girl has left, the sister, Mrs. J. Morgan Smith, remains.

Mrs. Julia Smith and her husband, J. Morgan Smith, were arraigned an hour later before Judge Foster, where District Attorney Jerome asked the court to enter the formal order for the dismissal of the indictment for conspiracy against the couple. Judge Foster ordered the discharge of both defendants and the immediate rearrest of Smith on a charge of contempt of court issued by Judge Newburger June 9, 1904.

Miss Patterson finally decided that she would leave for Washington at 12:10 tonight. She will spend the day and evening at the St. Paul Hotel. Two large bouquets were sent to Miss Patterson's room soon after her arrival at the St. Paul Hotel.

Woman Attempts Suicide.

New York, May 12.—Tired of life, Christina Fischer, 55 years old, attempted suicide this morning in the home of her friend, Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, at No. 172 east 63d street. She drank carbolic acid, and is now in the Presbyterian hospital where her recovery is considered doubtful. Miss Fischer lived at No. 41 north William street, Mont Clair, New Jersey.

Attempt to Blow Up Magazine.

St. Petersburg, May 12.—A dispatch received from the province of Lomsa tells of an attempt to blow up a powder magazine of the Cossacks on duty in that vicinity. The attempt was made by four armed men, who escaped in the confusion caused by their attack on the magazine.

Suicide of Korean Charge d'Affaires.

London, May 12.—Hang Eung, the Korean charge d'Affaires, committed suicide at the Korean legation this morning. No cause is assigned for his action.

New York Stock Market.

New York, May 12.—London was the important factor on the bull side this morning: Arbitrage brokers bought on a big scale about 60,000 shares, of which 20,000 was United States Steel common. They were heavy buyers too in Steel preferred, and Southern Pacific. After the reaction towards the end of the first hour the supply of stocks on brokers books seemed to be exhausted while the buying became more urgent.

Supreme Court Justice Dugro, in New York, today annulled the marriage between Marguerita Lemon, one of the prima donnas of the Metropolitan Opera company, and J. Reed Littell, a prominent patent lawyer of that city.

Fire this afternoon gutted the six story factory at 516 West 35th street New York, occupied by Jonah and Nurburg, hat makers. Loss will aggregate $100,000. Insurance partial. There were 300 employes in the factory when the fire started, incudling 70 girls, but all escaped safely.

Deafness Cannot be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

Best Cough Medicine for Children.
When you buy a cough medicine for small children you want one in which you can place implicit confidence. You want one that not only relieves but cures. You want one that is unquestionably harmless. You want one that is pleasant to take. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy meets all of these conditions. There is nothing so good for the coughs and colds incident to childhood. It is also a certain preventive and cure for croup, and there is no danger whatever from whooping cough when it is given. It has been used in many epidemics of that disease with perfect success. Death of Major Myers.

A telegraphic dispatch was received in this city this morning announcing the death, about 4 o'clock, in Richmond, of Major E. T. D. Myers, for many years President of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad, and also of the Washington-Southern Railway. Major Myers's death seems to have been sudden, as he is said to have retired last night in his normal condition. The deceased passed through this city a few days ago on a special train. Major Myers was one of the most prominent railroad officials of this country. He had been at the head of the R., F. & P. R. R. since the close of the civil war. During that conflict he was major of engineers in the Confederate army. From his long connection with the R., F. & P. road he had become thoroughly familiar with all its details, and his death will be seriously felt by the corporation. During the past two years Major Myers had given much of his attention to the railroad improvements in operation west and north of Alexandria, and often visited this city and vicinity. The deceased was 76 years old, and he has laid aside his labors after a long and useful life. Major Myers was well-known throughout most of the country, and was much esteemed, especially by those in the employ of the R., F. & P. Company.

Arrested at Pool Room.

Some excitement was caused at the Kenilworth poolroom, conducted by the Maryland Telegraph Company, yesterday afternoon, when Allen W. Mallery, a well-known real estate operator of that section of Prince George county, Md., who had been deputized to act as a constable, put Arthur Wall, the president of the company, under arrest.

The warrant, which, it is said, was sworn out by T. N. Mohler, charged Mr. Wall with conducting a betting establishment and with betting on the races.

The arrest of Mr. Wall caused no interruption to business, and after a momentary flurry the crowd turned its attention to speculating on the results as though nothing had happened.

The accused was taken before Justice of the Peace Elon Behrend, who resides a short distance from the poolroom. Mr. Wall appeared with his attorney, C. A. M. Wells, of the firm of Wells & Wells, of Washington, and asked for a postponement of the hearing. The question of bond pending the hearing arose, and when Percy Pumphrey, in whose name is the title to the property in which the Maryland Telegraph Company conducts its business, offered to go on Mr. Wall's bond, objection was made on the ground that the property is incumbered by the mortgage. The objection was sustained by the court. At this juncture, Richard N. Ryon, who is the vice president of the First National Bank of Southern Maryland, came forward and volunteered to stand as surety for the accused. Bond for $1,000 was accepted, and Mr. Wall was released until Monday next at 10 a. m., when the case will be heard.

River Notes.

The tugboat Walter F. Mead is on the ways at the shipyard for repairs.

The schooner Nettie, belonging to Captain Charles Speice, passed down yesterday loaded with lumber for the Rappahannock.

The schooner Thomas H. Kerby, loaded with lumber by H. K. Field & Co. for Colton's wharf, and the schooner Twilight, loaded by the same firm for Bushwood, have sailed.

The barge Howard has left W. A. Smoot & Co's wharf for Quantico, where it will load barytes for Baltimore

Mr. J. O. Fitts, of Boston, the general manager of the Nantucket Steamboat Company, which operates a line of steamers on excursions between Boston and Nantucket Island, has inspected the steamer Jane Moseley, it is stated, with a view of either chartering or buying the steamer for service in northern waters during the summer. The Moseley has been running on the Potomac since 1875 when she was placed on the Norfolk route, the steamer Lady of the Lake having been burned during the early part of that year.

The New Ferry Boats.

As has been stated in the Gazette, the contract for the building of two new steel ferry boats for the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company of this city has been awarded to the Harlan & Hollingsworth Shipbuilding Company of Wilmington, Delaware, The contracts were signed yesterday. The plans for the new boats are practically completed, and, it is stated, the keel for the first one will be laid within the next ten days or two weeks. The builders have five months in which to complete this boat, but, it is stated, it will be completed and ready for service wells within that time. The second boat is to be completed as soon as possible after the completion of the first steamer. The new steamers will make 15½ miles an hour, and the trip between Alexandria and Washington can be accomplished in twenty minutes. The boats will have propellers on each end of a shaft running their length, so that while one is shoving the boat ahead the other will be pulling.

Fishtown.

Operators at Fishtown are preparing to vacate the premises. An occasional jag of herring is received, but the season is practically over. Eleven hundred and eighty-five herring arrived this morning. The lot brought $5. The operators at the large shores have cut out. The gillers are still catching a few stray shad, but in most cases "toil all the night" and are rewarded with but two or three fish. The hucksters in market are now receiving saltwater varieties, and they will shortly form the standard supply.

Added to His Term.

Paul Jones, colored, now serving a sentence in jail for a misdemeanor, yesterday assaulted a fellow-prisoner, Oscar Johnson, colored. Justice Caton this morning went to the jail and tried Jones for the offense and added 30 days to his term.

Interesting Performance.

The exhibition given by "Ma Dusenberry and Her Gearls," at Christ Church Parish Hall last night, was a successful affair and much enjoyed by the large crowd which was in attendance. The following was the cast: Ma Dusenberry, Miss Janet Rowen; Pa Dusenberry, Mr. Henry Harris; Susannah Samantha Smithers, Miss Mary Nagel; Dorothy Dorcas Whitcomb, Miss Iva Hines; Rosemary Emmaline, Miss Katharine Waller; Arabella Geraldine, Miss Ellen Nagel; Petronella Scairface, Miss Grace Henry; Zenobia, Miss Nora Perry; Cleopatra, Miss Minnie Thaler; Charity, Miss Agnes Cruikshanks; Hannah Maria Violetta, Miss Gertrude Newton; instrumental duet, Misses Irene and Mary Nagel; chorus, Dame Darden; solo, "My Ben is Like a Little Boat," Miss Ellen Nagel; solo and chorus, "My Almond-eyed Boy," Miss Newton; solo, "When the Sunset Turns the Ocean's Blue to Gold," Mr. Henry Harris; orchestra, "Rosalie;" solo, "Sleep, Little Baby of Mine," Miss Rowen; chorus, "Afton Waters;" recitation, "Driving Home the Cows," Miss Mary Nagel; solo and chorus, "I Can't do this Sum," Miss Waller; chorus, "Goodnight Ladies."

The parts of Ma and Pa Duzenberry were well taken by Miss Janet Rowen and Mr. Henry Harris, who acted extremely well and sang their solos very sweetly. Miss Rowen's being especially pleasing. An instrumental duet was well played by Misses Irene and Mary Nagel; the latter also gave an amusing recitation. Solos were sung in a pleasing manner by Misses Gertrude Newton, Ellen Nagel and Katharine Waller Miss Steiner played the accompaniments, and Misses Grace Henry, Minnie Thaler, Nora Perry and Agnes Cruikshanks assisted in the choruses. Quite a large sum was realized for the piano fund. After the entertainment all who had taken part or assisted were entertained by Mr. Mahlon Janney at his home on Cameron street.

A Dangerous Trap.

An item in this column a day or two ago calling attention to the dangerous condition of the east end of the Wilkes street tunnel was read and approved by all residents of the southeast section of the city. A high bank at the mouth of the tunnel remains unguarded, the frail fence which formerly stood there having been destroyed. Sooner or later some careless child or nurse will precipitate a baby carriage and its occupant to the railroad track below, or a pedestrian tumble down the incline in the night, when a damage suit against the city will follow. The square alluded to is a thoroughfare, and the proper authorities should compel the railroad company to place it in a safe condition, inasmuch as they have virtually pre-empted it for their use.

Capt. R. F. Knox, auctioneer, will offer for sale at noon tomorrow in front of the Royal street entrance to the City Hall the following property:

This company will appear at the Opera House on Saturday next.

Fall of a Bank.

While several workmen were engaged in constructing a sewer at the head of Duke street near the Stone bridge this afternoon an embankment fell, partially burying Edward McCorkey, who was employed in the work. He was rescued as soon as possible and removed to his home on Henry street. His injuries are said to be serious.

Rebuff from Mayor.

The teamsters' strike in Chicago yesterday was quiet, as storms of wind and rain drove the pickets from their posts. There was little disturbance in the business quarter. On the outskirts, however, there were a few attacks made on the drivers of delivery wagons, but, with the exception of one negro, who was knocked senseless by a stone, nobody was injured.

A committee representing the Chicago Federation of Labor received a rebuff at the hands of Mayor Dunne yesterday afternoon. The committee waited on the city's chief executive with a request that an order permitting policemen to ride on the wagons of firms against which the teamsters are on strike be countermanded on the ground that the police were being used in a manner to discriminate against the strikers.

The mayor told the committee that he had issued the order enabling the police to ride on the wagons; that he would be personally responsible for the effect of that order, and in so many words said that he did not consider that the police were exceeding their rights or powers at all. He held that under normal conditions the wagons would be moved at a pace that would preclude the possibility of the police keeping up with them on foot. He also declared everything in the situation warranted the police riding on the wagons.

Limiting Size of the Family.

"The absolute limit of a woman's capacity for taking care of babies is eight, and she ought never to have more than six," said Mrs. Arthur M. Dodge, president of the New York Federation of Day Nurseries, while addressing yesterday the Eastern Public Education Association, which is holding its annual meeting in Richmond.

The words of Mrs. Dodge fixing the limit were received with laughter by her hearers, the greater number of whom were ladies, and she herself joined in the merriment.

A doubt prevailed regarding her meaning, which was not cleared up, some putting her down as a not very ardent adherent of the antirace-suicide views of President Roosevelt, while others inclined to the opinion that she simply spoke in her official capacity as president of a chain of nurseries, and desired to state that one nurse could not care properly for more than eight children.

Whatever the meaning of Mrs. Dodge she was sustained by the unanimous sentiment of those of the fair sex who heard her although some inclined to the opinion that she had fixed the limit too high and that from two to four babies would be a sufficient number for one mother.

Wedded After Three Hours.

A romantic marriage took place Tuesday afternoon at the Union Passenger Station in Lynchburg, the contracting parties to the wedding having seen each other for the first time just three hours previous to their union. The groom was W. Thomas Mullin, a well-to-do farmer of Campbell county, and the bride was Miss Ellen Allen, of Salt Rock, Cabell county, W. Va. The couple had been corresponding for some time. After a conference they decided to wed, and Rev. D. G. C. Butts, of Centenary Methodist Church, was called. The marriage took place in the waiting room in the presence of a large crowd.

Mount Vernon Regents.

The annual council of the Mount Vernon Ladies' Association met at Mount Vernon yesterday. The regent, Mrs. Justine V. R. Townsend, was unable to attend on account of illness, and Mrs. Walker, the dean of the association, presided. A number of the vice-regents, representing their respective States, were present. On Sunday the ladies will attend services at Pohick Church. Next Tuesday the State Board of Visitors are expected to pay their annual visit to Mount Vernon. Gov. Montague on account of his recent illness will not be able to attend this year.

Wilkie Collins' Fat Villain.

Here is a story that was told by Hall Caine concerning Wilkie Collins: "The most successful character in 'The Woman In White' was not a woman, but a man—Fosco, the fat villain. When the book was produced everybody was talking about the fat villain. While the author was staying with his mother a visitor came. The lady said to Collins:

"'You seem to have made a great success with your villain in "The Woman In White." I have read the book. I have studied this villain, but he is not half a villain. You don't know a real villain, and the next time you want to do a villain come to me. I am very close to one. I have got one constantly in my eye—in fact, it is my own husband!'

"Wilkie Collins often told this story, but withheld the name of the lady. It was the wife of Sir Edward Bulwer Lytton."

The Long Eared Bat.

The long eared bat puts itself to bed in wraps not only of its own wings, but supplemented by the folding of its own enormous ears. This little British mammal, the body of which is only two inches long from the tip of the nose to the base of the tail, has the largest ears, in proportion to its size, of any animal in the world. They are an inch and a half long and three-quarters of an inch broad, and when their owner proposes to go to sleep it bends them outward and then backward, folding them down on either side of its head and shoulders before bringing up the wings to cover its sides. When waking up it is quite a business for the little bat to get its tall ears straightened out and into position again. They remain for some time at "half cock" and then are gradually set up and erected to serve the animal while awake.—London Nature.

The Expression "Great Scott!"

Correspondents of the London Academy have been discussing the origin of the American expression "Great Scott!" One thought it arose in some obscure way from the name of General Winfield Scott. Another writes: "Surely the connection of this with General Winfield Scott, mentioned by your correspondent, is doubtful—probably a mere volksetomologie or story invented to account for a word not otherwise understood. Russell's 'Current Americanisms' merely defines it as a 'euphemistic oath of no great force and very uncertain origin.' He must have been acquainted with the Winfield Scott story and (as he is elsewhere very hospitable to fancy derivations) must have had reasons for rejecting this one, but it is odd that he did not record the fairly obvious corruption of the German 'Gruss Gott!'"

Warlike, but Polite.

Ernest Vedel, a Paris literary man, was once a lieutenant in the French navy. At one time he commanded a small warship charged with the duty of preventing the entrance of foreign vessels into a Siamese harbor. A Scandinavian ship, with a Siamese commodore who called himself Armand Duplessis de Richelieu, attempted to enter by the alleged authorization of the French minister at Bangkok. M. Vede wrote a note in these terms: "If you don't desist, I shall open fire." Then he learnthat Mme. Richelieu was with her husband, and he tied the note to a magnificent bouquet. The commodore with the illustrious name desisted and thanked the polite lieutenant profusely for the flowers.

Gray Eyes and Lovelight.

There are no finer eyes in the world than those clear gray eyes of Quaker gray that now and then we see in some good woman's face. Somehow or other they fill you with a vague desire to pray. They are the eyes that shine with lovelight (a beautiful old word), the light of an exceeding kindness for all living things.

The green iris has had a bad reputation. Shakespeare speaks of eyes "green as leeks" and jealousy as a "green eyed monster." A person with green eyes is often stigmatized as "cat eyed" and is supposed to possess all a cat's purring and ingratiating insinuation.—Brown Book.

A Scotch Transaction.

A highlander who sold brooms went into a barber shop in Glasgow to get shaved. The barber bought one of his brooms and after having shaved him asked the price of it. "Twopence," said the highlander. "No, no," said the other. "I will give you a penny, and if that does not satisfy you take your broom again." The highlander took it and asked what he had to pay. "A penny," said the barber. "I will gie you a bawbee, and if that doesn't satisfy you pit on my beard again."—London Tatler.

The Schemers.

"Don't you sometimes think that you are too much attached to money?"

"No," answered Dustin Stax. "If you knew all the schemes to pry a man loose from it you'd realize that he has to be closely attached."—Washington Star.

Experience or Reminiscence.

The Author's Wife—How can you write an up to date sea story when you haven't been on the water for years? The Author—Well, I've been married for twenty years, and yet I can write a love story.—Life.

The Bitter End.

A pupil in one of the New York public schools was asked to write a sentence containing the words "bitter end." He turned in the following: "A dog chased a cat and bitter end."

Without the Silence.

Snacks—Did your wife's mother treat you with silent scorn? Jacks—No such luck; she just treated me with scorn.

Gold's Gilding Effect.

"That fellow is a perfect boor."

"S-s-sh! He's worth $4,000,000."

"That so? Well, as I was saying, he's a man of marked individuality."—Pittsburg Post.

The Change.

Fred—She isn't the pretty girl she used to be. Arthur—Is that so? Fred—Yes. Her father lost all his money speculating.

Japanese Ladies and Suicide.

While Japanese ladies never committed harakiri, the honorable equivalent was death by a stab in the neck from her own dirk, a weapon which she generally carried in her girdle to be used in time of need.

Where a Roman dame would in ancient times have plunged her dagger into her own heart, a Japanese heroine preferred to thrust the weapon into her neck, and there is no record of either male or female in Japan ending existence in the fashion that is so often depicted in western novels and less frequently perhaps in real life.—Nineteenth Century.

Tides on the Great Lakes.

In theory there must be lunar tides on the great lakes, although they may be too small to be detected in bodies of water so much more affected by winds and by differences in barometric pressure. This latter influence is so potent that in Lake Michigan it sometimes causes disturbances resembling tidal waves when the surface of the water is otherwise quite calm.

Reconciled to It.

The car was crowded to its full capacity, and the two who had just entered were compelled to hold to the same strap.

"We seem to be sentenced to hang," observed the maid.

"Yes," whispered the young man as his fingers closed over hers. "Capital punishment."—Chicago Tribune.

A Little Mixed.

"Johnson wants to borrow some money of me. Do you know anything about him?"

"I know him as well as I do you. I wouldn't let him have a dollar."—New Yorker.

Taking Desperate Chances.

It is true that many contract colds and recover from them without taking any precaution or treatment, and a knowledge of this fact leads others to take their chances instead of giving their colds the needed attention. It should be borne in mind that every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality, makes the system less able to withstand each succeeding cold and paves the way for more serious diseases. Can you afford to take such desperate chauces when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cure of colds, can be had for a trifle? For sale by Gibson & Timman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

Man's Reasonableness

is often as great as women's. But Thos. S. Austin, Mgr. of the "Republican," of Leavenworth, Ind., was not unreasonable, when he refused to allow the doctors to operate on his wife for female trouble, "Instead," he says, "we concluded to try Electric Bitters. My wife was then so sick she could hardly leave her bed, and five [5] physicians had failed to relieve her. After taking Electric Bitters she was perfectly cured and can now perform all her household duties." Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists, price 50c.

There Is a Difference.

The difference between Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar and all other Cough Syrup is that it moves the bowels, thus expelling a cold from the system. This relaxes the nervetissues and by its healing effect on the throat and lungs the cough is relieved—cured entirely. Kennedy's is the original Laxative Honey and Tar and contains no opiates. Good alike for young or old. Tastes good. Sold by W. F. Creighton, 401 King street, and corner Queen and Patrick street.
